

GOD PROMISED A SON

Words by Mary Rose Jensen
From Genesis 17,18 & 21, Isaiah 9, Luke 1,2

B^b E^b Gm A^b E^b D^b

1. God prom-ised a son to A - bra - ham when he and Sar - ah were grow ing old.
2. God prom-ised a son to a faith-ful priest whose wife, E - liz - a - beth was old.
3. God prom-ised a Son to all the world, when hearts were faith less and i - cy cold.

B^b E^b Gm A^b E^b D^b E^b

Ob. The bar - ren womb would be with child. And they both laughed when they were told.
The bar - ren womb would be with child. Zechar - i - ah doubt - ed when he was told.
The vir - gin's womb would be with child. And Mar - y praised Him when she was told.

B^bm E^bm B^bm

Ob. It was a mir - a - cle from God when He gave them I - saac, their ba - by boy.
It was a mir - a - cle from God when E - liz - a - beth bore a boy named John.
It was a mir - a - cle from God when the ba - by Je - sus was born to her.

B^b E^b Gm A^b E^b D^b E^b

Ob. Now his de - scen - dants fill the earth and his Seed Je - sus brings peace and joy.
The Bap - tist cal - ling Is - ra - el to their Mes - si - ah, God's on - ly Son.
Give glo - ry to God and sing His praise for He has lived here with us on earth.