

O LORD, OUR GOD

Words and music by Mary Rose Jensen
Genesis 22:1-18, Isaiah 53:11 & John 3:16

A Dm B \flat F C B \flat Gm Gm7 A

1. O Lord, our God, what have You done In tell - ing A - bra - ham to kill his son?
2. O Lord, our God, what have You done In giv - ing Je - sus, Your on - ly Son?

Dm B \flat F C B \flat Gm Gm7 A

He split the wood and honed his knife. Why should he take so pre - cious a life?
He healed the sick and brought us light. Why should You take so pre - cious a life?

F C Dm C F Gm A

For I - saac was the prom - ised seed In whom Your cov - e - nant would pro - ceed.
For Je - sus was the prom - ised Seed By Whom His peo - ple would be freed.

Dm B \flat F C Dm B \flat C Dm

You gave a ram in - stead to die And blessed all na - tions through that child.
When we de - served to die you gave Your Ser - vant that we would be saved.